COURSE STRUCTURE AND ASSESSMENT INFORMATION

The Crisis Management and Human Behaviour Course is made up of 3 types of activities:

- 1. Written learning materials including images.
- Video footage that explains the written material and shows examples of how to perform in drills, provide passenger instruction and what to do in an emergency.
- 3. An assessment, which require equal to or greater than 60% to pass. The assessment requires a webcam to record the assessment process. Three attempts are provided, and failure to gain the 60% required pass mark after the three attempts results in failure of the course. If you fail, you'll need to pay the course fee again to continue.

On successfully completing this course you will be able to:

- Organise shipboard emergency procedures.
- Optimise the use of resources.
- Control response to emergencies.
- Control passengers and other personnel during emergency situations.
- Establish and maintain effective communications.
