

CRISIS MANAGEMENT AND HUMAN BEHAVIOUR ONLINE

Provides participants with the skills to organise shipboard emergency procedures, optimise the use of resources, control response to emergencies, control passengers and other personnel during emergency situations, establish and maintain effective communications.

Crisis Management and Human Behaviour online also includes Passenger Safety, Cargo Safety and Hull Integrity, which is for every person assigned immediate responsibility for embarking and disembarking passengers, loading, discharging or securing cargo, or closing hull openings on board ro-ro passenger ships (STCW Regulation V/2 paragraph 7).

In addition to Crisis Management and Human Behaviour, Crowd Management training is required by STCW Regulation V/2, paragraph 4 and 5 for all personnel designated on muster lists to assist passengers in emergency situations. Crowd Management is a separate course, also available online.

WHO SHOULD PARTICIPATE?

Masters, Chief Engineer Officers, Chief Mates, Second Engineer Offices and any person designated on muster lists as having responsibility for the safety of passengers in emergency situations on board passenger ships (STCW Regulation V/2 paragraph 6).

COURSE STRUCTURE AND ASSESSMENT INFORMATION

The Crisis Management and Human Behaviour Course is made up of 3 types of activities:

1. Written learning materials including images.
2. Video footage that explains the written material and shows examples of how to perform in drills, provide passenger instruction and what to do in an emergency.
3. Two assessments, which require equal to or greater than 60% for each assessment to pass. For these assessments, you need access to a webcam. You have three attempts at each assessment, and failure to gain the 60% required pass mark after the three attempts results in failure of the course. If you fail, you'll need to pay the course fee again to continue.

On successfully completing this course you will be able to:

- Organise shipboard emergency procedures.
- Optimise the use of resources.
- Control response to emergencies.
- Control passengers and other personnel during emergency situations.
- Establish and maintain effective communications.
